Before this Court is the application of Appellant East End Taxi Operations, Inc.

(“Appellant”), which hereby renews its Motion for Attorney Fees and Costs against Appellee Virgin Islands Taxi Association Inc. (“Appellee”), pursuant to Virgin Islands Rule of Appellate Procedure 30.

I. Procedural History

The above-captioned matter was an interlocutory appeal of a ruling by the Superior Court of the Virgin Islands regarding the imposition of sanctions. On February 6, 2008, the Court entered an order reversing the interlocutory order of the Superior Court. (ECF Documents 44 through 45). Within fourteen days, on February 20, 2008, Appellant filed a timely motion for attorney fees and costs pursuant to V.I.R. App.P.30. (ECF Document #46). On February 26, 2008, Appellee filed a timely notice of appeal to the Circuit Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit (ECF Document #49). On April 17, 2008 this Court after reviewing the papers submitted in the aforementioned matter for attorney fees and costs, and noting that an appeal was pending by Appellee before the Third Circuit Court in this matter entered an order that the Motion for Attorney Fees and Costs was denied without Prejudice, pending the appeal to the Third Circuit (ECF Document #58).

On February 3, 2011, the Third Circuit dismissed Appellee’s appeal to the Third Circuit for lack of Appellate Jurisdiction. On August 2, 2011, Appellant renewed its prior filed Motion for Attorney Fees and Costs (ECF Document #66), since the original Motion was Denied Without Prejudice pending the determination of the appeal to the Third Circuit which had been dismissed for “want of jurisdiction.”

II. Discussion

1. Time line of Appellant's Motion for Attorney Fees and Costs.

On February 3, 2011, the Third Circuit Court of Appeals dismissed Appellee's appeal for lack of Appellate Jurisdiction. Subsequently on August 2, 2011 Appellant filed its renewed Motion for Attorney's Fees and Costs against Appellee, pursuant to Virgin Islands Rule of Appellate Procedure 30. It is to be noted that what is being requested in this renewed motion, which is identical to the original motion, are solely the counsel fees and costs incurred on the appeal of Judge Kendal's order, in a case in which personal injury was not an issue. Appellee's argument that this is a personal injury case is rejected.

In this case, the Court is acting pursuant to its authority under V.I.R. App. P.30 and that authority is statutory in nature and is set forth in the Virgin Islands Code. See V.I.R. App.P. 19(d). That being so, “[i]n the courts of the Virgin Islands, including the Appellate Division of the District Court of the Virgin Islands, the American Rule against shifting fees to the losing party does not apply. Rather, there shall be allowed to the prevailing party in the judgment such sums as the Court in its discretion may fix by way of indemnity for his attorney's fees in maintaining the action or defense thereto.” 5 V.I.C. § 541(b) Prosser v. Prosser 40 F.Supp.2d 663,671 (D.V.I. app. 1998).

V.I.R. App.P.30(b) states that a Motion for Attorney Fees and Costs in the Appellate Division of the District Court should be filed within fourteen days after entry of judgment. Appellant's appeal to the Appellate Division of the District Court resulted in a judgment in favor of Appellant and against Appellee on February 6, 2008 (ECF Document #45). Within fourteen days, thereafter, February 20, 2008, Appellant filed this timely motion.

The Appellate Division of the District Court entered judgment in this case on February 6, 2008. A timely Motion for Attorney Fees and Costs was made in response to the entered judgment. Whether or not an ultimate decision on the merits of that Motion was deferred, pending a ruling from the Third Circuit Court of Appeals, the timeliness of the Motion itself is clear. V.I.R. App.P.30(b) does not provide a deadline to renew a timely Motion for Attorney Fees and Costs where a decision was deferred pending the resolution of an appeal.

2. Rule 30 of the Virgin Islands Rules of Appellate Procedure provides, in pertinent part, as follows: “...if a judgment is reversed, reasonable costs shall be taxed against the Appellee unless otherwise ordered...” 5 V.I.C. § 541(a)(6) includes “attorney’s fees” within the definition of “costs”. Accordingly, appellant is entitled to an award of reasonable attorney fees and costs as an element of the costs it incurred in prosecuting this appeal.

3. As set forth above, the Virgin Islands Code allows for the recovery of attorneys’ fees and costs as follows:

- a. Fees of officers, witnesses, and jurors;
- b. Necessary expenses of taking depositions which were reasonably necessary in the action;
- c. Expenses of publication of the summons or notices, and the postage when they are served by mail;
- d. Compensation of a master as provided in Rule 53 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure;

- e. Necessary expense of copying any public record, book, or document used as evidence in the trial; and
- f. Attorney's fees as provided in subsection (b) of this section.

V.I. CODE ANN. tit. 5, § 541 9a) (1986), the statute further provides: "there shall be allowed to the prevailing party in the judgment such sums as the court in its discretion may fix by way of indemnity for his attorney's fees in maintaining the action or defenses thereto" Id. At 9b).

2. Fair and Reasonable Award

To determine a fair and reasonable award of attorneys' fees, the Court considers factors including the time and labor involved, skill required, customary charges for similar services, benefits obtained from the service and the certainty of compensation. Lempert v. Singer, Civ. No. 1990-200, 1993 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 19923, at *5 (D.V.I. Dec. 30, 1993; see also Morcher v. Nash, 32 F. Supp. 2d 239, 241 (D.V.I. 1998). Reasonable attorneys' fees may include charges for work that was "useful and of a type ordinarily necessary to secure the final result obtained from the litigation." Pennsylvania v. Delaware Valley Citizens' Council for Clean Air, 478 U.S. 546, 561 (1986); see also Gulfstream III Associates, Inc. v. Gulfstream Aerospace Corp., 995 F.2d 414, 420 (3d Cir. 1993) (noting that reasonable attorneys' fees may include charges for measures necessary to enforce district court judgments as well as other charges "reasonably expended" to advance the litigation). However, the decision whether to award fees to a prevailing party and to what extent is within the Court's discretion. Jo-Ann's Launder Ctr. v. Chase Manhattan Bank 31 V.I. 226, 234

Appellant's bill of costs was timely filed on February 20, 2008 along with the Declaration and Certification of Counsel at that time, Alan D. Smith¹ (see Document # 46). Subsequent to the renewal motion on August 2, 2011 an amended Declaration of Alan D. Smith and a declaration of substitute counsel Mark D. Hodge were filed with the Clerk on August 31, 2011 (Document # 71).

Applying the standard outlined above, the Court turns to Appellee's objections to various items listed in Appellant's schedule attached hereto.²

a. Appellee essentially argues that the deadline for filing Appellant's motion for fees and costs in the Appellate Division of the District Court "must be measured from February 3, 2011", the date that the Third Circuit of Appeals entered its judgment dismissing Appellee's meritless appeal of the judgement of this Court. While that date might be relevant to a Motion for Fees and Costs in the Third Circuit Court of Appeals, the "judgment" of the Third Circuit is not relevant for purposes of V.I.R. App. P.30. The deadline for a motion pursuant to V.I.R. App. P.30 is measured not from the date of entry of judgment in the Third Circuit Court of Appeals, but rather from the date of "entry of" the judgment in the Appellate Division of the District Court. In this case, a Motion of Judgment was placed in the docket on February 6, 2008. That being so, Appellant's Motion for Attorney Fees and Costs filed fourteen days later on February 20, 2008 was timely under App.P. 30(b). The Third Circuit's entry of its own judgment did not create a new judgment date by the Appellate Division of the District Court.

¹Presently a Magistrate Judge of the Superior Court of the Virgin Islands.

² The Court has reviewed the briefs of counsel and has heard oral argument with respect to the respective position of the parties.

b. Appellee next argues that the Declaration by Plaintiffs initial Counsel, Alan Smith, should be rejected because:

1. It was not signed by hand but is the manner for signing electronically under the local rules of Civil Procedure.
2. It does not state it is made under penalty of perjury.
3. It does not affirm that the services were necessary.
4. It does not affirm that the rates charged were reasonable for the time period.

c. The amended declaration and affirmation by Alan Smith, as well as the declaration by current Counsel regarding costs, have been filed addressing these objections. The Court after a review of the above documents finds that Appellee's objection above is now moot.

There has been many objections entered by Appellee to Appellant's inclusion in the schedule items related to Appellant's work including security in place of the deposit of $105,000.00 which the Court had ordered all Appellants to post. This Appellant was unable to deposit cash and sought and obtained official Court approval of other type of security. The items reflecting counsel's effort in obtaining such security are not a reasonable cost and such items have been denied as noted herein.

The party seeking fees has the burden of producing sufficient evidence of what constitutes a reasonable market rate for the essential character and complexity of the legal services rendered. Knight v. Drye, 2009 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 82369 M.D. Pa. Sept. 10, 2009, quoting McCutcheon v. America's Servicing Co., 560 F.3d 143, 150 (3d Cir. 1990); Windfall, 51 F.3d at 1186 quoting Washington v. Philadelphia Cty. Ct. Of Common Pleas, 89 F.3d 1031, 1035 (3d Cir. 1996) (internal quotation omitted).

A reasonable hourly rate is typically based on the prevailing rates in the relevant community, and “ [t]he court should assess the experience and skill of the prevailing party’s attorneys and compare their rates to the rates prevailing in the community for similar services... “Maldonado v. Houstown, 256F.3d 181,184 (3d Cir. 2001).”

In his amended declaration, Alan Smith states as follows:

“I further declare, affirm, and certify that the hourly rate reflected in the attached billings for my work was reasonable and at or below the prevailing rates in this community for counsel, with my decades of skill and experience, and that the same is true of our paralegal and the hourly rate charged for her time.”

His billing reflected an hourly rate between $200.00 and $300.00 for attorney and $100.00 to $125.00 for a paralegal. In further support of above hourly rate in the community, see reference to the Virgin Island Supreme Court’s pronouncement in Judi’s of St. Croix Car Rental v. Weston, Civ. No.2007-50, 2008 V.I. Supreme LEXIS 21 (V.I. Apr. 14, 2008), that “$300 per hour is at the high end of rates normally charged by Virgin Islands attorneys.”

A review of Appellant’s counsel present application gives indication of the essential character and complexity of the legal services he rendered.

III. Fee Analysis

The Court now directs its attention to the specific fees and costs sought by Appellant as set forth in Exhibit 1 herein to which the Appellee has objected. To facilitate this process, the Court will adopt a chronological listing and attribute a numerical designation for each line item where an objection has been made by Appellee thereto. If the Court sustains it, a “minus” sign will designate the amount to be deducted from the Appellant’s schedule; where an objection is denied, the claim will remain.

1. September 8, 2006

This is a “block billing which includes a conference between firm attorneys, re: results of September 7, 2006 bankruptcy issues, Appellate Division issues and strategy; draft portions of a memorandum in support of motion for emergency stay; research for same.

- a. There is insufficient information as to time allowance for each item that was the subject of the attorney conference. In addition, such type of conferences for billing purposes is frowned upon.
- b. Objection sustained except for the two remaining items; memorandum for emergency stay and research are sufficiently defined. Requested fee of $1200.00 reduced to $600.00.

AMENDED DECLARATION AND AFFIRMATION IN SUPPORT OF MOTION FOR ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS

I, Alan D. Smith, hereby declare as follows:

1. At all relevant times, I was employed by the Law Offices of Hodge & Francois and was the attorney of record for Appellant East End Taxi Operations, Inc., in St. Thomas/St. John D.C. CIVIL APPEAL NO. 06/146 up to and including the filing of Appellant's Motion for Attorney Fees and Costs on February 20, 2008, and have personal knowledge of the facts contained herein.
2. The Order of the Superior Court of the Virgin Islands from which East End Operations, Inc. took this appeal, was reversed by this Court.
3. I hereby declare, affirm, and certify that the copy of the billing records of Hodge & Francois and the attorneys' fees and costs listed in the detailed billings attached hereto reflect costs related solely to this case, which were expended by Hodge & Francois on behalf of East End Taxi Operations, Inc.
4. I further declare, affirm, and certify that the time set forth in the attached billings for my work is true and accurate as described in the bills, and that I personally devoted the time described to representation of East End Taxi Operations, Inc. as described in those bills.
5. I further declare, affirm, and certify that the hourly rate reflected in the attached billings for my work was reasonable and at or below the prevailing rates in this community for counsel with my decades of skill and experience, and that the same is true of our paralegal and the hourly rate charged for her time.
6. I further declare, affirm, and certify that the services provided were necessary and proper in light of the circumstances and complexity of the case.

7. The foregoing declaration and affirmation is made under penalty of perjury.

DECLARATION AND AFFIRMATION OF ATTORNEY MARK HODGE IN SUPPORT OF MOTION FOR ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS

I, Mark D. Hodge, hereby declare and affirm as follows:

1. At all relevant times, I was employed by the Law Offices of Hodge & Francois, and have personal knowledge of the facts contained herein.
2. During the course of Attorney Alan Smith's representation of East End Taxi Operations, Inc., in St. Thomas/St. John D.C. CIVIL APPEAL NO. 06/146 up to and including the filing of East End Taxi Operations, Inc.'s Motion for Attorney Fees and Costs on February 20, 2008, the Law Offices of Hodge & Francois charged clients for photocopies at the rate of forty cents per page ($0.40/page), which was at or below the standard and reasonable cost charged by law firms in this jurisdiction.
3. During that period, the Law Offices of Hodge & Francois never charged a client for the base cost of Westlaw service.
4. During that period, the Law Offices of Hodge & Francois charged a client only for the specific amount of time attributed to that client by Westlaw for research conducted for that client, in which that client's billing code was entered at the beginning of the research, which was at or below the standard and reasonable cost charged by law firms in this jurisdiction.
5. The cost for photocopies charged to East End Taxi Operations, Inc. for work related to St. Thomas/St. John D.C. CIVIL APPEAL NO. 06/146 was at the standard rate for photocopies in the Law Offices of Hodge & Francois.
6. The cost for legal research on Westlaw for work related to St. Thomas/St. John D.C. CIVIL APPEAL NO. 06/146 was at the standard rate for Westlaw research in the Law Offices of Hodge & Francois.

7. Accordingly, I respectfully request that East End Taxi Operations, Inc. be awarded costs in the sum of $1,817.56.

8. I declare, certify, and verify, under penalty of perjury, that the foregoing is true and correct.
